Have a poor credit score or can't get a bank account? Spending too much money at a check casher? At risk of foreclosure or need affordable housing? Eligible for food stamps but haven't signed up? Or do you need to find a better job with benefits, childcare and transportation?

Alameda County CAN will help.

Our members provide free or low-cost income and asset building activities to Alameda County residents. And we've built a searchable online resource directory to help you find:

- financial counseling
- banking/saving products
- benefits and work supports
- housing & foreclosure assistance
- employment
- legal advocacy
- credit repair
- education about predatory lending
