Do you want to use tax time to grow your money year-round?

Alameda County CAN wants to help.

Our members provide free or low-cost income and asset building activities to Alameda County residents:

- financial counseling
- banking/saving products
- benefits and work supports
- housing & foreclosure assistance
- employment
- legal advocacy
- credit repair
- education about predatory lending

See the reverse side of this flyer for information on where to access these and other services. Or visit www.alamedacountycan.org for a growing directory of income and asset development activities in Alameda County.

Who We Are: Alameda County Community Asset Network (Alameda County CAN) is a working group of service providers, advocates, community based organizations, public agencies, and base building organizations that work in partnership and with other stakeholders committed to increasing the income and assets of Alameda County residents.

Our Mission: Alameda County CAN's mission is to provide a continuum of strategies, services and activities that serve all low to moderate income Alameda County residents in every phase of increasing their income and assets.

Our Philosophy: We believe that people should be met where they're at in their income and asset development efforts and that effective, relationship-based services and products should be appropriate to their needs.
